kind'ness

The life of Drake Durkee tragically ended on June 10, 2015, at age 11, during a whitewater rafting tour in Buena Vista, CO. Drake excelled at life. He was a son, a brother to three, a student, a leader, an athlete, a friend, a football fan and a boy of faith. His spirited personality and work ethic inspired everyone around him. He had courage, strength and leadership abilities beyond his years. It was natural for him to show compassion and kindness, he knew no other way.....

.....What will you do?

In honor of Drake Durkee and his unwavering ability to share warmth and kindness with others, please do an act of kindness for someone on June 10th, or any other day, and then provide them with this card and ask them to do the same.
